COSMOPOLITAN CLUB, JUST FORMED, ELECTS
Officers and committees of the new Cosmopolitan Club, installed in this city January 18, last, were elected at the club's weekly meeting at the Hotel Harrington yesterday afternoon.
The local Cosmopolitan Club, one of the ever-growing links in the International Federation of Cosmopolitan Clubs, with headquarters in Kansas City, is patterned after the well known civic betterment organizations, such as Rotary, Kiwanis and Civitan, and it is the intention of those men interested to raise it to the high plane enjoyed in community affairs as its coterminaries.
Officers elected yesterday to serve until the end of the club's fiscal year, which is in April, were: Phillip Buettner, president; James E. Colloff, vice president; Paul F. Branstetter, secretary; Fred E. Rice, treasurer, and Michael Heister, sergeant-at-arms.
The executive committee is composed of Richard P. Whitty, Dr. Albert J. Carrico, Edward E. Minto and William L. F. King.
Other committees named by President Buettner were: Membership, Harry Carroll, chairman; Howard L.
Cobey, Thomas F. Finlin, John J.
Barley and H. E. Huntberry; civic affairs, M. A. Leese, chairman; Henry G. Lehman, Clarence F. Donohoe, W.
G. Gallher and Ferdinand Waldman; entertainment, John Merklings, chairman; William Fowler, Harry Crandall and Ed C. Gram; attendance, Lewis A. Payne, chairman; John T. Jones, Robert W. McChesney, E. E. Herrell and V. F. Bourne; luncheon, Joseph A. Fisher, chairman; Edward J. Brennan and Anton A. Auth; publicity, C.
H. Hites, chairman; John B. Don-more, A. S. Gardner and Fred Drew; classification, Edwin H. Ritz, chairman; David R. Myers, C. S. Sinkler and Frank J. Murphy; auditing, U. G.
Cunningham, chairman; Edwin W.
Schneider, Ernest C. Lee and R. W.
Crampton; sick committee, Joseph W.
Trew, chairman; E. J. Murphy, George B. Mullin, Jr.; William H. Bergman and William A. Simpson.

DOLLS FOR GROWN-UPS, 3 TO 5 FEET IN LENGTH, LATEST PARIS CRAZE
By the Associated Press.
PARIS, January 27.—Dolls for grown-ups, dolls that are from three to five feet in length, that hang limp, with trailing limbs, are the latest craze in fashionable Paris.
A favorite is a pale-faced Pier-rot, with wide-staring eyes, and bright red, bow-shaped lips. He is placed in the corner of a settee, and his white face and black silk costume produce quite an effect.
Another type is a shock-headed peasant, a grotesque leer on his rubicund face and dressed in a blue blouse, red and white striped trousers and wooden sabots.
JOFFRE BUSY IN TOKIO.
Tokio, January 26.—Marshal Joffre of France has concluded his visit to Tokio as a guest of the imperial family, with its attendant official functions, and now becomes the guest of the government. He is domiciled at the Imperial Hotel and has begun to take part in the various luncheons, dinners and theater parties which have been arranged in his honor. The marshal will be the guest of Charles B. Warren, the American ambassador, at a dinner to be given January 31.

INDIANS TO DANCE.
Will Feature Program at City Club Stag Party.
Eleven Indians from the plains of Oklahoma, garbed in their native costumes and equipped with all the weapons and tokens for their primitive war and sun dances, will furnish the feature number of the program to be presented at the City Club's first stag night party in the new clubhouse tonight.
The Indians, members of the Ponca tribe, are in Washington to lay a petition before President Harding.
Other numbers on the program are songs by George O'Connor and Camille Little, two vaudeville sketches and three high-class athletic exhibitions. The affair will close with a buffet supper. Every member has been invited to bring one prospective member and ticket reservations to date indicate that the main ballroom will be crowded.
The first of the club's supper dances, which will be held every week night from 10:30 to 12:30, took place Wednesday evening. The club has also installed an orchestra for the evening dinners from 6:30 to 8:30.
In parts of Scotland it is a common superstition that if crickets fore-sake a house which they have long inhabited some evil will befall the family.

CASCARETS 10¢
Clean your liver and bowels!
You are dizzy, bilious, headachy and sick from constipation poisons.
You need one or two Cascarets tonight to physic your liver and bowels, then you will feel fine when you wake up in the morning.
Cascarets work while you sleep.
They never gripe or stir you up like cathartic pills, salts, calomel or oil.
Cascarets empty the bowels thoroughly. They cost only ten cents a box at any drug store. Children love their candy taste.
